'Theatrical Magic' The Press, York

by Mike Kenny

A play with live music for young children and their families

Don and Sam are bin men with big dreams. They want to save the world. We throw so many things away without thinking. Something must be done. With the help of a knight in shining armour they set out to save the world.

'I loved that show so much it was even better than a birthday party.' Toby (5)

'A beautifully crafted piece of children's theatre, I would rate it 5 stars.'

Ela Portnoy, Joseph Rowntree Pupil Ambassador

'Bin Men' is a co-production between York Theatre Royal & Guildford's renowned ajtc Theatre Company. It is a story of recycling, transformation and silliness - with a touch of Don Quixote. Also touring to schools.

'Gobsmackingly wonderful' Grandparent
