'Children's theatre to remember'

A story told with music, movement, puppetry, and fun.
Perfect for over 5s.

"A rich and beautiful achievement by gloriously talented theatre artists." Carl Miller, Unicorn Theatre

"I really, really liked that" Tara (6, Chipping Norton)

"A sensitive one-act play of warm integrity, watched with rapt attention by its young audience." David Wood M.B.E.

"Brilliant. Absolutely brilliant." Grandad (Curve, Leicester)

"I liked the honking noise, scarecrow, little baby crows were great." Robbie (5), Abigail (5)

Scarecrow was shortlisted for the 2010 Writers Guild of GB Award - Best Play for Children and Young People.
Director: Rosamunde Hutt, formerly Associate Artistic Director of The Unicorn Theatre for Children
Designer: Jane Linz Roberts • Puppeteer: Polly Beestone • Composer and musician: Sharon Lindo
